Five New Firefighters Join BFRD

BRIGHTON, Colo.— Brighton Fire Rescue District is pleased to announce the addition of five new firefighter recruits to its team! All five recruits have previous firefighting experience and are now training to fulfill the position of firefighter with BFRD. The trainees are taking part in the 2016 North Area Fire Academy, a 13-week recruit training academy put on by eight departments on the north side of the Denver Metro Area. The graduation date is scheduled for November 18.

About the recruits (from left to right): Jimmy Duran is a former BFRD volunteer firefighter and also served as a fire inspector for the District. Kris Kraus is a former career firefighter for Hudson Fire Protection District. Leon Miller is a former volunteer firefighter for BFRD. Ethan Gilbert is a former career firefighter for Hudson Fire Protection District. Aaron Heiser is a former volunteer firefighter for BFRD and a former career firefighter for Black Hawk Fire Department.
